

Campaign

Making Safe Menstrual Practices Accessible to Marginalized Women in Bastar, Chhattisgarh

Over 76 women received reusable sanitary napkins that Community health workers distributed in the village. Workshops for 90 women have also been conducted to raise awareness and impart education on the subject of menstruation and hygienic ways of using reusable sanitary cloth pads, focusing on how to wash and dry it to avoid health risks.

